BEST PRACTICE

The Criminology Department is endeavoring to facilitate students with these best practices which can be just what's needed to keep educators grounded and to make positive impacts on all students.

❖ Make Learning Active

Students are provided with more impactful takeaways from doing rather than simply listening or viewing. Offer opportunities for students to be actively engaged in their learning and experimental journeys.

❖ Encourage Discussions

Through discussions, students are exposed to a variety of opinions and ideas that may or may not be similar to their own. Classrooms offer a perfect forum for teaching students to learn to share information, agree and disagree in a productive fashion.

1. Specially training students for competitive exams
2. Physical training (For the purpose of Uniformed services)
 - a. Rope climbing
 - b. Track & field events
3. Awareness on importance of PG degree
4. Arranging special coaching classes for M.Sc Entrance exams and Technical Test.
5. Field visit
 - a. Police station
 - b. Court
 - c. Central prison
 - d. NGO
6. Outdoor training
